Our Mission

Potters Without Borders aims to provide socially responsible assistance to people in their search for economic stability. Intentions are to provide accompanyment through long or short-term consultancies in the areas of improvement of ceramic production, introduction of energy efficient, sustainable, and environmentally safe technology. We are currently involved in the dissemination of ceramic water filter technology.The organization will maintain an open-source ethic and share our information with all interested people.